I will speak to you however I like and if you don't like it. You can go fuck yourself because you don't fuck me anyway. I like the dig you took at me on FB that magically disappeared. Typical baby Faith shit. I guarantee you took a bunch of fucken pictures from Friday till today and posted them all on FB. That I know I'm blocked from seeing along with the dig you took at me once again. Like all the other fucken times you take digs at me. You posted today and the other one that comes up is over a month ago. So I am blocked from seeing only what you want me to. Just like baby Faith blocking Aspen on FB. Aspen is a teenager and you are supposed to be the adult. I think I am going to air out all my complaints about you on FB as well. Starting with all the money I spend on you and you won't even fuck me. How does that sound. I'm not a baby and wouldn't do so anyway but maybe I should be an asshole. I had to change all my stuff to view only as me because I am afraid that girl will sue me if she sees all the Porsche stuff on my FB page. You wouldn't even take not one fucken picture with me on that shitty ass vacation that you treated me like shit on and before we left. When I went on a cruise with Amanda we took over a hundred pictures and had a great time. I also took a shitload when I took Aspen and Christopher. We have NONE! I don't trust you, you're a fucken sneak, a proven liar, a crook for stealing all that money from me disguised as other payments, the stunt with the percocets, a fucken hypocrite. Just to name a few things. Do not pull any more cash off my bank account and hand over my card. I will write checks out and it's the proper way to do it. It is to hard to track all the money you pull out cause it's never coded properly. I have to look through bank statements and figure out what you take. Plus I pay the taxes on all that money cause you haven't paid federal income tax in years. I want all the passwords and everything I need to know to continue on with the business. I will give you enough money if you choose to leave and be on your merry fucken way. Or everything is going to be done exactly how I say it is because it is my business. If not I'll pay someone to do the website which it will cost me less money in the long run. I can do all of this by myself besides the website. I know how to use quickbooks and can do it better than you once I get going. I can take and pack orders, Order boxes, run credit cards, balance the books etc.... All easy shit to do and I do all the hard work sweating my ass off in the garage. You don't do shit for me besides make me some gummies which I can find someone else to get me that stuff. I'll make them myself like I do everything for myself anyway. Oh you brought me a fucken sandwich. WOW! That much have been so difficult for you to do. You don't clean up, never cook for me and I can count on one hand how many times you have in the last few years. I can think of 2 in the last year. A crock pot meal and dinner for my lousy Bday. I'm fed up with you ridiculing me, never fucken being here, never sleeping with me. Always fucken sick. Tired of a baseless sexless relationship. I have not a single reason to be nice to you after all the shit you have done over the course of the year and it all started when you stole all that money from me. Thousands and thousands of dollars. That vacation was shit and you pissed me off so many times. I had to leave the room one time and sat in the cathedral to calm down. Then you wanted to go to the Sema show in Vegas. I said to myself no fucken way am I going with you after that trip. I can't think of one single reason to stay in this shitty ass relationship. NOT ONE! All you do is cost me money, complain, and complain about me. You would think that after all the money I spend on you and things I do for you and family I would get much better treatment. Boob job, dinners out, your teeth, vacation, paying for and fixing your families cars. I do a lot for you. Got your kids better jobs. I spent $1700.00 on your son's transmission that I know wasn't paid back and it's not like I'm not asking for it back anyway. I asked you to sell my pants and it's been weeks for you to get them even posted on poshmark. Where's the money from the ones that have sold? Bring the pants back and I will finish it when I have the time. I have always done everything you ask of me and never have I ever said no. It's a one sided relationship and I am just a fucken paycheck to you. You certainly do not like me and don't give a shit about me. I am just being fucken used and one reason why I threw all your shit out of my house. You are one of the main reasons why I have been getting really angry all the time. I have never physically abused you and never will I but I am not putting up with your shit anymore. I will get angry as I please and have many reasons to. Not having sex is one reason and you're a lame fucken duck now. Use to watch porn with me but now it's gross to you. Yeah 2 people having sex is so fucken gross. You are the most non sexual women I have been with. You are barely fucken ever here. Lets see you took a vacation to DC, a trip to NY, then the shitty ass cruise, missed work for being a sneak going to the rave. Missed more work for this rave. All the times you have to babysit your father. Miss work when your family comes. How many times you missed because your always sick. You show up after 1pm or you don't come at all. Leaving by 5 thirty 6. So you work maybe 25hrs at most. Have the nerve to say I only do 20% of the work. That is saying I only work 5 hours a week compared to your 25. Forever working on the website which looks exactly the same to me as it did a year ago. Exactly what Chaz always claimed to be doing and another Chris Brice in my life using me. I have been taking time off to try and fix myself. I haven't had a real vacation in 10 years. My mother doesn't clean my house, cook for me or my kids, grocery shop and doesn't do my laundry. I know for a fact your mom does all that shit. Then all you do is complain about stuff, me and money. Well you always seem to have money when you want to go do stuff. You pull more money out of this business than I do. Well I am cleaning out the bank account and putting most of it into mine. This business is going to be run exactly how I say it is if you choose to stay. I can't even finish my taxes because the books are still fucked up. I see the undeposited funds wasn't fixed. A bunch of other stuff is coded wrong. Are you going to pay the penalties as a result. When you came here on Sunday and said you were going to surprise me with dinner on Friday. I about started to laugh cause I know it was another fucken lie. It was never the plan because we were supposed to go to Green Culture for dinner before I wrecked my car. Which by the way you never asked me if I was okay when I got home. You could have easily calmed me down but you didn't give a shit. Like OMG are you OK. Your scaring me and then run out. I was mad and every reason to be. Thanks you for the support after going through that ordeal. Not something I would have done. I handled my nephew perfectly after his crash and he was able to calm me down when he got home. He has done more for me in the last month than you and Aspen combined in the last year. He has certainly cooked more meals for me and I like having him here now compared to when I was sick. He will run errands for me when I ask and does it immediately. Goes to the grocery store if we need something. I have someone here who isn't a Dumocrat that agrees with me politically and doesn't hate Trump. Well thank god for Trump because he has saved and made me more money. I have been able to pay down more of my debt. Well if we all had Medicare for all comment you made to me that day pissed me the fuck off. Stupid comment from and uninformed person that wouldn't be paying for it anyway. You get your news from FB and don't know shit about what is going on in politics. You'll vote for someone who promises all the free shit cause you are a taker and not a giver. You get free healthcare, disability checks, probably some other stuff like welfare or food stamps but I don't want to know. You also had help paying your rent for a while. You also get income tax money back. I don't ever ask about your baby daddies because I don't think you would be honest about it. How does a little shit weakling guy rape you when you always told me you got into fights in school. Claimed to be so tough. Doesn't sound like you put up a fight at all. The story has changed several times also. What about the other baby daddy. What happened to him and why did he not pay child support or want to see his kids. Did you just go out with and get pregnant with complete pieces of shit. None of it makes any sense to me at all. Then when I was asking what you had to do so we could have sex. You said all I think about is sex and told me to stop taking test so I wouldn't have a sex drive. WTF and I immediately lost all interest. No one has ever said or complained that I want to have sex. The stiches in your vagina I'm pretty sure it was a lie because you wouldn't go for a bike ride after that. You would rip them right out. You just don't want to sleep with me. So if you aren't sleeping with me you must be sleeping with someone else. I am literally almost to that point just to let you know. I am in great shape and look better now than I did 5 years ago. There are plenty of women that will have sex with me and why should I deprave myself anymore. It relaxes me and I enjoy it. I will treat people the same way they treat me.
