MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor. The petition for dating violence injunction was filed on March 16 of 2020. Right around that time Mr. Geberth learned that Ms. Antonio had robbed him blind. She had not only cheated on him during their relationship by charging to him hotel visits and travel that did not involve him, but in addition, that he discerned that there was well over $100,000 of misappropriated funds. We have suggested that the Court take —

- 128. Plaintiff claimed Antonio never asked permission or had a conversation about any of the charges, but Geberth admitted there was a conversation involving Dallas. Geberth said, "I wasn't there on the trip. She told me she was going with her daughter. And when I got the hotel reservations, there was four people on the hotel reservation. So, who were the other two people that went on this trip?" [Tr. Tr. 4.25.22, 55:2-7/ Tr. 6.16.22, p. 146-147 *Referring to the SpringHill Suites, Dallas, Texas fee of May 5th of 2019]
- 129. This Court asked, "so it was okay for her to use the card for a non-business trip? Geberth responded, "If I was going, it would have been okay, because then I could have wrote it off as a business expense because all I would have had to have done is go and visit one Porsche dealership and I could have wrote the whole thing off." [Tr. 6.16.22, 181:1-4, 12-20].
- 130. In the Redline Email, Geberth complained that Antonio was barely ever there because she "took a vacation to DC, a trip to NY." He knew about the trips including the Dallas trip and was completely fine with it until Antonio broke up with him. Geberth became paranoid

MS. MCHUGH: Judge, I'm going to object. To ask that -- I'm just going to object to the nature of this argument, that none of these have been charged. These are just allegations. Ms. Antonio has never been charged with anything.

THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, are you just giving sort of an opening statement or are you saying that this is evidence that has been previously admitted?

MR. SOLOMON: I'm giving you my argument – my opening statement to this proceeding. And I'm going to then give you what the change in circumstances are and the legitimate business purpose for which we seek the modification.

THE COURT: I understand your objection. I'm just going to allow leeway for him to present his opening position as to what he believes the evidence will show. So I understand your objection. He's not saying that that's been admitted yet. This is just his opening statement.

MS. MCHUGH: I find it -- I find it very damaging to my client who is sitting here to be called names.

MR. SOLOMON: Between March 16 [2020] when the petition for dating violence, which is very specific under a specific statute, was filed, Mr. Geberth learned of the and embezzlement and the theft and the fraud and the forged checks that have been taking place over an extended period of time.

SMEAR CAMPAIGN IMMEDIATELY AFTER I ENDED THE RELATIONSHIP 2019

Well my GF Faith Antonio, Faith Lee is what she goes by on Facebook of over 5 years has been embezzling money out of my business accounts. I have all the damning evidence and deciding on what I should do. I found so many payments disguised as something else in my Quickbooks accounting paying for her personal shit. Innisbrook membership, Best Buy Credit card, Credit One Bank, Merrick Bank, forged c... See More

I have been working 24/7 to get this mess cleaned up that my ex girlfriend Faith Lee on Facebook real name Faith Antonio. I dated her for over 5 years to find out she has been embezzling money from my business Numeric Racing for several years. It's a lot of money and stuff so far and I keep finding more. I got into 2016 through 2018 and some of 2019 and it's disturbing knowing what she has been doing for the last 5 years. You just don't start doing this at the age of 34 she is now 39. She has been doing this type of shit her whole life. No question about it. A very very dishonest, sneaky, lying, thief. She had me fooled and I entrusted her to do my accounting but rather she was bleeding my accounts anyway she could. She bought so much stuff on my Amex and Synovus accounts that have nothing to do with my company. So much sneaky shit she did in Quickbooks to hide everything. I found where she purchased a Ring camera system and an Arlo camera system. So I outfitted more than just her house. I also bought a Cricut machine that does arts and crafts for $400.00. Isn't that nice. There is a shitload of Amazon purchases that were all delivered to her house. My tax returns are going to be filed so late until I fix this mess. Here is a picture of the culprit. I wouldn't hire her considering what she has done and what she is capable of doing. I filed charges and I also filed a Civil Law Suit against her. I have so much evidence there is no way she can avoid going to jail or punished in some way. Forging my name on checks is really all I need and I have a lot of them that were all disguised in Quickbooks as something else.

- (f) On November 9, 2017, Debtor disbursed from DGP's checking account the sum of $410.21 to pay her personal Credit One Bank credit card account. Debtor disguised this payment in DGP's QuickBooks by marking the entry as a payment to Control Cables for materials.
- (g) On November 9, 2017, Debtor disbursed from DGP's checking account the sum of $527.88 to pay her personal Credit One Bank credit card account. Debtor disguised this payment in DGP's QuickBooks as uncategorized.

- (h) On February 7, 2018, Debtor disbursed from DGP's checking account the sum of $572.20 to pay her personal Credit One Bank credit card account. Debtor disguised this payment in DGP's QuickBooks as uncategorized.
- (i) On March 12, 2018, Debtor disbursed from DGP's checking account the sum of $540.00 to pay her personal Credit One Bank credit card account. Debtor disguised this payment in DGP's QuickBooks as uncategorized.
- 23. DGP alleges that Debtor used DGP's Synovus Bank account to pay for her own personal expenses, without authorization or justification. Debtor denies the allegation despite clear evidence of Debtor's personal use of the Synovus Bank Account as specified supra.
- 24. DGP alleges that Debtor was provided with an American Express credit card in the name of Numeric Racing [#1013] to be used only for legitimate, pre-approved business expenses of DGP. Debtor denies that she was authorized to use the credit card only to pay for legitimate pre-approved business expenses of DGP. Debtor listed that credit card as a source of payment on her personal application for membership at Innisbrook Country Club. The Innisbrook application is Exhibit "C".
- 25. DGP alleges that Debtor made a series of ATM withdrawal from DGP's Synovus Bank account without authorization or justification. Debtor completely denies this allegation. DGP admits that Debtor was authorized to withdraw $600.00 per week as compensation for her employment services to DGP. However, Debtor routinely withdrew $1,200.00 per week from DGP's Synovus Bank account without authorization.
- 26. DGP alleges that Debtor had access to DGP's QuickBooks. Debtor denies the allegation. However, Debtor has admitted previously that she has full access to DGP's QuickBooks. See supra.

VERIFICATION BY DECLARATION

28 U.S. Code § 1746(2); 92.525(1)(c) & (2), Florida Statutes

My name is Daniel Geberth, principal of DGP PRODUCTS INC., D/B/A NUMERIC RACING ("DGP") and I have knowledge of the facts and exhibits set forth in the foregoing Verified Response (the "Response") to Debtor's Amended Motion for Summary Judgment. My knowledge of the relevant facts and my ability to verify the truth of said facts is derived from my personal knowledge of and involvement in the facts, circumstances and events described in the Response as well as my review of pertinent records relating thereto generated and maintained in the ordinary course of business by DGP. Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing Response and that the facts stated in it are true and correct. I have duly executed the foregoing Declaration to verify the truth of all factual assertions made in the Response.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

By:

Daniel Geberth for DGP

Request to Defer Motion for Summary Judgment Pursuant to Rule 56(d), Fed. R. Civ. P.

In order to comprehensively develop the above and other factual/legal defenses, DGP requires additional written and deposition discovery. DGP renews its request to continue trial, incorporating by reference herein the arguments and verified allegations set forth in the motion as if fully presented in the instant Response.

It is critical that DGP be allowed to secure the necessary discovery required for this case and to make any appropriate supplement to its opposition of the Motion for Summary Judgment prior to any final determination thereof. Smith v. Fla. Dept. of Corr., 713 F. 3d 1059, 1064 (11th Cir. 2013) ("Summary judgment is premature when a party is not provided a reasonable opportunity to discover information essential to his opposition."); Snook v. Trust Co. of Ga. Bank of Savannah, N.A., 859 F.2d 865, 870 (11th Cir. 1988) ("If the documents or other discovery sought would be relevant to the issues presented by the motion for summary judgment, the opposing party should be allowed to utilize the discovery process to gain access to the requested materials.").

DGP has propounded written requests for production and interrogatories targeted to identifying documents pertaining to the specific issues DGP seek to explore in further developing its opposition to the Motion for Summary Judgment. In addition, DGP is in the process of coordinating the scheduling of a deposition of Debtor. However, Debtor claims to be unavailable until after the Motion for Summary Judgment is scheduled for hearing as to specific subject areas relevant to the issues presented in the Motion for Summary Judgment. Based on the foregoing, DGP respectfully request that any final determination of the Motion for Summary Judgment be deferred until such time of the limited discovery can be completed and a reasonable time is afforded to DGP to prepare an appropriate supplement in support of their opposition to the Motion for Summary Judgment.

WHEREFORE, DGP respectfully requests that this Court enter an order denying the Motion for Summary Judgment filed by Debtor or, alternatively, defer ruling until such time as DGP can complete specifically targeted written and deposition discovery so as to supplement their response.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Allison D. Thompson

1
             MS. ANTONIO: Mr. Solomon, can you please 2
   stop directing my deposition?
 3
             JUDGE MCEWEN:
                           Ms. Antonio, you asked him if he knew who did it, and he's explaining it. He's 5 saying it's you.
 6
             MS. ANTONIO: No. I asked May 9th.
 7 asking about this specific transaction. He decided to talk about a different transaction.
 8
             JUDGE MCEWEN: I'm sorry then. I thought
 9 10
   he was speaking to the example you gave. All right.
11
             THE DEPONENT: We were on the other one.
12
             MR. SOLOMON: We are, your Honor. I don't 13 know about May 9th. This is dated January 9, 2018.
14
   BY MS. ANTONIO:
15
             On the screen it says, May 9, 2018.
16 on the audit trail history report filed with the 17 court by your attorney, listed as their Exhibit 8.
18
   On page 16, please tell me the user who edited this 19 transaction on May 9, 2018?
20
        Α.
             It has my name on there and I put 21 uncategorized expense on there because I did not 22
   know when it was when I met with my accountant, 23
   Ashana Ramdial, in August of 2019. So I put 24 uncategorized expense on there because I didn't know 25 what this was for.

Q. So Mr. Geberth, would you state that you 1 2 knew of this transaction prior to November of 2019? 3 I don't recall. No. Because I filed -- I filed my tax returns late in 2019. 5 Mr. Geberth, did you change the 6 transaction that's listed on the -- this Exhibit, 7 dated May 9, 2018? It says, edited by Daniel 8 Geberth? I just told you that. Yes. I put 10 uncategorized expense on there because I did not know what this transaction was. And then I had a 11 12 meeting with my accountant in October of 2019. 13 MS. ANTONIO: Can we please bring up Exhibit 2? Thank you. 14 15 BY MS. ANTONIO: 16 Now, listed on the complaint as forged Q. 17 check is check number 2004. 18 MS. ANTONIO: Can you scroll down a little 19 bit please? 2004. It's probably on the bottom. BY MS. ANTONIO: 20 21 And it says for Merrick Bank? Ο. 22 Yes. And that's the same exact signature 23 on there as the one above it. You can see it 125 --24 oh, here's the two checks you can lay over each 25 other. You can take that check for 125 and there's another one for $300.00, I think. You can lay the 1 two checks over top of one other and the signature is in the exact same spot. And Merrick Bank is your 3 account. 5 THE REPORTER: I'm sorry, Mr. Solomon, can 6 you please mute? There's an echo. Thank you. 7 THE DEPONENT: Signatures are exactly the 8 You can see them. BY MS. ANTONIO: 10 And did you have knowledge of this Q. transaction prior to December of 2018? 11 No. Because I didn't file my taxes, like 12 13 I said, until late 2019, so I wouldn't have filed my taxes in 2018. 14 15 MS. ANTONIO: Can you please bring up 16 Exhibit 4? And we're going to find that transaction 17 for May 9, 2018. I think it's page 17. (WHEREUPON, Exhibit 4 was marked for 18 19 identification.) 20 THE TECHNICIAN: The technician did not 21 hear you. 22 THE DEPONENT: See where it says, "...was 23 disguised as Advanced Auto Parts." 24 THE TECHNICIAN: Ms. Antonio, the 25 technician did not hear what page you requested.

1 MS. ANTONIO: Page 17, please. 2 THE DEPONENT: Can we look at this one? 3 BY MS. ANTONIO: Please tell me the user who edited the 4 Q. 5 transaction on May 9, 2018. 6 MR. SOLOMON: Excuse me. May I ask a 7 question? Are you representing that the May 9, 2018 date is the date of the editing by Mr. Geberth, is that your representation, ma'am? 10 MS. ANTONIO: I'm talking about this 11 document that was submitted and provided in 12 discovery. 13 MR. SOLOMON: Well, I don't know that the date you're talking about is reflective of the date 14 15 on which the edit was made, and you're assuming that that's the answer, and I don't know that, and this 16 17 hasn't been established in this record. Objection. 18 MS. ANTONIO: This was an audit report 19 that we discussed numerous times in July and August 20 of 2021. 21 MR. SOLOMON: No. I'm just pointing out 22 to you one simple thing, that you're asking a 23 question that suggests that the May 9, 2018 date is 24 the date on which it was edited by Mr. Geberth, and 25 I don't think that's been established, and I'm objecting on that basis.

 1
 2
             MS. ANTONIO:
                           Okay.
 3
             MR. SOLOMON: And if you know that it is and you're representing that, then we can move on, 5
   but I don't know that to be the case.
 6
             MS. ANTONIO: I'm asking questions.
 7
   going to lay a foundation.
             JUDGE MCEWEN:
 8
                           Wait a minute. Wait, wait.
   If these documents came from Mr. Geberth and they 10 were supposed to include the exhaustive set of 11 documents representing the audit trail, then Mr.
12
   Geberth who produced them should recognize them.
13
   And if this is not the date of the edited one, then 14
   I would hope that there are other documents in here 15 that are backup to this one regarding May 9, 2018, 16 at 9:18 p.m., Mr. Solomon.
17
             MR. SOLOMON: I don't know what it is that 18 you're saying, Judge. Go on mute, please. Judge, I 19 don't know what you're saying. I'm only suggesting 20 that the question is effectively assuming facts not 21 in evidence. I don't know that, and I'm not saying 22 it is or it isn't. I was asking for a 23 representation so that we could move on with these 24 questions. I don't have that. I don't know what 25 that date reflects. I'm not suggesting that this audit trail, or whatever it is, wasn't provided. 1 2 That's not the question. It's not Mr. 3 Geberth's job to determine what the entries on somebody else's report mean, and if the question is 5 loaded with that presumption, it's objectionable. 6 That's all I'm saying. 7 MR. MCEWEN: I thought that your expert 8 was guiding you in the production of the full audit history, which we've argued about several times. 10 And this audit history comes from the backup to DGP 11 Products' QuickBooks. 12 MR. SOLOMON: I'm not disputing that. JUDGE MCEWEN: 13 And so if it came from him and if this is incomplete, then there must be some 14 15 other sheet that goes with May 9, 2018, at 9:18 that 16 would explain the edit. Because there's information 17 that goes -- when you drill down into the audit, it 18 shows every single change. So I'm not sure why you 19 all would have delivered this as the responsive 20 document if that's not what it purports to be. 21 MR. SOLOMON: Well, I didn't represent 22 that it was one, purports to be one or the other. 23 This doesn't indicate that the edit was made on the 24 date, as I read it. If that's the case, and that's 25 clear from Ms. Antonio's representation, that's fine.

          I'm not suggesting we did or didn't produce,
 1 or did or didn't represent, or it's complete or 3 incomplete. She's asking the question and she's assuming that one correlates to the other. And all 5
   I asked was, unless that's validated by Ms. Antonio, 6
   I object to that question being asked to Mr.
 7
   Geberth, because it's not Mr. Geberth's production -
   - or expertise to review and testify about what the 8 various entries mean and how they were effected.
10
   She gets to ask Mr. Kanter for sure, but I don't 11 know that that is, and all I asked for was a clarification that one correlates to the other.
12
13
   That has nothing to do with our production, your 14
   Honor.
15
             MR. MCEWEN:
                          Okay. Then maybe you're 16 saying that there's a competency issue here. So Ms.
17
   Antonio, you could rephrase the question to say, I 18 want you to assume that your expert produced this as 19
   the audit history, do you know what the May 9, 2018, 20
   9:18 p.m. timestamp signifies?
21
             MR. SOLOMON: Perfect. That's all I ask.
22
             JUDGE MCEWEN:
                            Okay.
23
             MS. ANTONIO: One question with that.
24
   it was stated orally in Court and on a transcript 25 saying otherwise, because this was provided directly

MS. CRUZ-GARCIA: Objection, compound.

THE COURT: Do you understand her question? I'm going to let him -- I understand your point, but I think the first part was prefatory. If you mis-coded it as advertising, does that necessarily mean that you couldn't detect what it was really for?

THE WITNESS: No, you can detect what it's for if it's mis-coded. The allocation to a different account or a different vendor would -- people think is a way to hide why the transaction existed the same way that importing the transactions from a different system would indicate they were created elsewhere, which is a shrewd way of disbursing funds and then moving them into another system.

SOLOMON: At the -- we entered -- we finally -- my firm came into the case in July of 2020, and immediately Ms. Antonio moved for sanctions against Mr. Geberth's firm on the basis that he didn't have the right to file the state court action. That went nowhere. No effort was made to schedule that motion for sanctions for hearing.

DGP PRODUCTS INC., d/b/a,
NUMERIC RACING
Plaintiff,
Vs. CASE NO: 2020-CA-0889 CCAX WS
FAITH ELYZABETH ANTONIO, Defendant.

FAITH ANTONIO'S MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO FLORIDA STATUTE SECTION 57.105(4) FOR FEES AND COSTS

COMES NOW, the Defendant, Faith Antonio, by and through its undersigned attorney, Brendan R. Riley, Esquire, with this Motion for Sanctions under Florida Statute Section 57.105(4) and in support states:

- 1. Plaintiff filed a Complaint in this case.
- Defendant has served Plaintiff with the 21-day letter and motion for sanctions prior to filing this motion for sanctions pursuant to 57.105(4).

SOLOMON: We finally were ready to go to a hearing in the state court case on October 13th after Mr. Geberth filed an additional $23,000 at that point of embezzled funds that he -- that had been coded improperly, that had been sent where goods and services had been purchased by Ms. Antonio using forged checks, credit cards that she had not disclosed, payments that she had not been authorized to make through the company and the like.

- 113. That "stamp" is found on other checks to Geberth's vendors that were removed from the Complaint, including to his accountant at Cohen & Grieb. Check 1909 was not included in Plaintiff's Exhibit 206. Plaintiff failed to introduce evidence that Antonio allegedly acquired with DGP's funds a stamp or a photo editing program to affix "unauthorized" checks with the signature of DGP's principal (Compl. ¶ 36).
- 114. Geberth lied by accusing Antonio of making the entries, saying, "no. you did," contradicting his testimony during his deposition when referring to the May 9, 2018 edit on Plaintiff's Check 1980 History of Modifications. (PL. 254). Geberth admitted, "it has my name on there and I put 'uncategorized expense' on there because I did not know when it was when I met with my accountant, Ashana Ramdial, in August 2019. So I put 'uncategorized expense' on there because I didn't know what this was for." [Tr. 6.16.16, 42-45:23-25/6.14.22, 83:9-14]
- 115. His testimony conflicts with entries on the same document. The Court will find

 (1) on May 9, 2018, Geberth makes a direct edit; (2) on August 17, 2018, users Marca Schulz and

 Numeric Racing makes several indirect edits that does not result in any changes; (3) on

 November 26, 2018, Ramdial makes a direct edit to the entry, categorizing it into Shareholder's

 Distributions; (4) on November 30, 2019 (after the breakup) user Numeric Racing makes an edit to categorize the entry to Ask My Accountant; and (5) on December 26, 2019, Ramdial edits to entry to Contract Labor. (PL. 254).

hide the complete activity until Defendant tried to impeach Geberth with the Intuit 3849 audit trail. The Court can see Daniel Geberth adds the vendor, Credit One Bank, prior to editing SOLOMON: But seven minutes before the hearing on the discovery objections that had been filed over the preceding three months, they filed a suggestion of bankruptcy indicating that Ms. Antonio had filed for relief under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. That was on October 13th. And on October 15th, we filed an adversary proceeding in the Middle District Bankruptcy Court because lo and behold in the preceding two weeks we found yet another $13,000 that Ms. Antonio had embezzled and defrauded during that period of time.

merchant misappropriation allegations (Compl. 99 33, 38-39, Ex. F).

98. Kanter testified, as identified on page 49 of his report, that he could not make a determination with the evidence provided although Intuit produced every statement and credit card transaction from the QuickBooks Stripe account, including documents tying Geberth to the admin@numericracing.com email address. The only bank account attached to the Stripe merchant account is DGP's Synovus. (Def. 133, 53-129 of 2155).

- 99. None of the payments were missing nor was there any possibility to divert payments. For example, referring to the March 28, 2019 deposit on the March 2019 statement, Plaintiff alleged $1,098.28 was not deposited into DGP's Synovus (Compl. at Ex. F). According to Intuit's records, the March 28, 2019, transaction occurred at 8:04 am EST (11:04 am PDT) was declined. (Def. 133, p. 70).
 - It's unbelievable that Antonio is accepting orders all day and night when we observe the times listed for each payment, i.e., 7:14 am PDT (4:14 am 04/29/2019 7:14 AM POT $369.99 04/26/2019 11:46 AM POT 04/25/2019 11:32 AM POT $524.99 EST), 6:11 am PDT (3:11 am EST). DGP's customers placed orders 04/25/2019 12:58 PM POT $965.58 04/24/2019 9:49 AM POT $949.58 04/24/2019 6:11 AM POT $575.96 through www.numericracing.com, the web address documented on the 04/22/2019 12:51 PM POT $1,279.98 04/19/2019 8:41 AM POT merchant account, meaning its unnecessary for DGP to have an employee at Geberth's home to take orders (Def. 133, pp. 60-95).

SOLOMON: So, now we -- with that background, the Court would take judicial notice of the court proceedings in the state court and in bankruptcy case. But there were forged checks on Synovus, on the business account of DGP, where she paid her personal bills. She wrote checks to herself and she photoshopped the signatures on those checks. She took incessant withdrawals from the ATM for the business, the Synovus business account for DGP, even to the point of over -- well over $138,000, but she claims that she was not an employee, even though she had represented that she was supposed to be paid $600 a week for the services that she was providing to the company.

Q -- you -- you were receiving a $600 a -- a week stipend, correct, for the services that you rendered at DGP Products?

ATM Withdrawals and Alleged Forged Checks

140. At every turn in this proceeding, Defendant had been stripped of any opportunity to defend herself. Plaintiff alleges that Antonio received regular and established wages but objected to and refused to produce any records. If Antonio had received wages from DGP, there was no reason to refuse to turn over records. Defendant has no idea what the alleged regular and established wage compensation was. In the Complaint, Plaintiff pled:

Case 8:20-ap-00537-CPM Doc 1054 Filed 05/15/23 Page 42 of 50

During Debtor's employment with DGP, Debtor made a series of ATM withdrawals from the Synovus Bank Account, without any authorization or justification. A partial inventory of unauthorized ATM withdrawals made by Debtor is attached hereto as Exhibit "D". (Compl. ¶ 28, in note 4)

141. To further confuse the issues, on March 4, 2022 ten days before the March 14, 2022 trial, Plaintiff filed its Notice of Removal, in Doc. 720, note 11, representing:

Upon information and belief, DGP submits that the ATM withdrawals for the years 2015 and 2016, listed at Exhibit D, represent wages paid to Debtor by DGP. ATM withdrawals which exceed the authorized wages are still being claimed as funds embezzled... [Tr. 5.2.22, 111:17-25, 112:1-3]

Antonio made unauthorized withdrawals and then 2 years later removes all the ATM withdrawals upon "information and belief" claiming the withdrawals are Antonio's wages. Plaintiffs conclusory statements are based on "information and belief," that Antonio withdrew funds from DGP's Synovus for personal use or for wages, without providing any information to support that belief that it was Antonio who withdrew the funds. Plaintiff failed to plead misappropriation of SOLOMON: She used an unreported Capital One credit card for which she actually asked us for the discovery of the card that she was using and by which she stole or misappropriated funds.

Doc 1054 Closing Argument Brief: Defendant testified that she ended her relationship in May 2015 after she "found out he was emailing escorts for sexual services." [Tr. 4.25.22, 108:3-13]. Geberth testified that he reviewed his personal Capital One credit card ("Geberth's Capital One") and disputed charges he claims were fraudulently made by Antonio after the breakup. He testified that he wouldn't have looked beyond Capital One Card account giving support that Defendant did not have the Synovus Debit.. Geberth combed through his accounts and called his credit card companies claiming fraud on anything that he thought was related to Antonio. Just like Geberth did when he parted ways with Brice and Sedgwick. It's his modus operandi. [Tr. 5.2.22, 72:8-19; 74:2-3].

MS. MCHUGH: This is improper impeachment and no proof for any of this. This is the wrong forum for any of this.

1	PROCEEDINGS
2	THE COURT: We also have digital court
3	reporting on as well.
4	And, Ms. Antonio, can you hear us?
5	MS. ANTONIO: Yes, I can.
6	THE COURT: All right. Do you have an
7	associate with you, Mr. Solomon?
8	MR. SOLOMON: Yes. I have my IT guy, Bill
9	Kent, who is prepared to put some exhibits up.
10	THE COURT: Perfect. I appreciate it. Okay.
11	So hold on one second. I just got out of a
12	sorry for me being late. I just finished a two and
13	a half hour hearing and then I ran down. I'm in
14	court but I couldn't remember if I did this as a
15	hybrid hearing or only via Zoom. But since
16	everyone is here via Zoom, I'm going to ask does
17	anyone have any witnesses that are physically
18	coming into court today?
19	MR. SOLOMON: No, sir.
20	MS. MCHUGH: No, Judge.
21	THE COURT: Okay. Then I'm going to inform
22	the court deputies that they can just lock up.
23	They don't need to be here for the hearing so that
24	way it will relieve some court staff.
25	MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Judge.

1	MS. MCHUGH: Judge, I don't anticipate any
2	witnesses at all, so
3	THE COURT: Well, we'll see how we
4	MS. MCHUGH: Right. We'll see how it
5	progresses.
6	THE COURT: Hold on. We need to open up a few
7	things on my computer to log in. So everyone bear
8	with me for a moment.
9	MR. SOLOMON: Who is this person?
10	THE COURT: So, Jasmine, that's my assistant
11	so she can listen in if I need anything.
12	So that's the lovely beach that she has to
13	remind herself.
14	MS. MCHUGH: And then it's Friday. We may
15	actually go their tomorrow. Maybe not all of us.
16	I'm suggesting myself.
17	THE COURT: I'm almost done opening up.
18	All right. So we're here for Case Number
19	20002405. And this was a motion by the Respondent,
20	I believe, to dismiss the injunction or dissolve
21	the injunction. Is that correct, Mr. Solomon?
22	MR. SOLOMON: Yes, Your Honor.
23	THE COURT: All right. So we've set this
24	hearing time. And so since it's unless there's
25	any motions beforehand, I was just going to give it

T	Over to Mr. Solomon for his presentation.
2	Ms. McHugh, do you have anything before we
3	start?
4	MS. MCHUGH: Yes. I just want to I just
5	want to check with the Court and make sure. I had
6	sent documents that support my response. And since
7	you were in a court hearing and just came back over
8	and don't know, I sent them to your judicial
9	assistant and Mr. Solomon. And I also filed them
10	in the court file.
11	THE COURT: I am seeing those now.
12	MS. MCHUGH: Right.
13	THE COURT: Let me see. I have one, two,
14	three e-mails.
15	MS. MCHUGH: Correct. Case law is attachment
16	one and attachment two and then my motion my
17	response to the motion.
18	THE COURT: And then also I believe I received
19	one from let's see from Mr. Solomon's office
20	with a OneDrive link with documents in it as well.
21	So that's what I have so far.
22	So, anything else, Ms. McHugh, before we
23	begin?
24	MS. MCHUGH: No, Your Honor.

MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I'd like to address

Τ	that, if I may.
2	You entered an order on January 14th requiring
3	that all of the matters that parties wanted to rely
4	upon had to be submitted five days exchanged
5	five days in advance.
6	Ms. McHugh sent that stuff while I was at 7	lunch. I haven't had a chance to see it. She just
8	sent it within the past hour, which is the
9	materials that she was just referencing. So I
10	object to them being considered at this motion
11	hearing.
12	THE COURT: Okay. Let me open them up here,
13	please.
14	So one is case law. So I don't think that's
15	going to be an issue because the other is exhibits.
16	So, Ms. McHugh, are these items that
17	Mr. Solomon would not have received before today's
18	date and time?
19	MS. MCHUGH: No. Actually they are a
20	compilation of everything that Mr. Solomon has sent
21	to me in his hundreds and hundreds of documents
22	that they sent.
23	I received several documents on Monday from
24	Mr. Solomon four days ago.

I also received an e-mail last night with a

1	link to documents at approximately somewhere
2	after 8:00 between 8:30 and 9:00 I received
3	more.
4	And these documents are documents that you
5	would have already had. And if we had appeared
6	first of all, I didn't see a January 14th motion.
7	I don't know where that came from.
8	THE COURT: Okay.
9	MS. MCHUGH: I'm not saying it doesn't exist.
10	I'm just saying I've never seen it. And, as Your
11	Honor knows, I've had some trouble getting notices
12	in this case because of the clerk's error that does
13	not that had taken me off of the service and
14	then put me back on.
15	MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I just don't
16	MS. MCHUGH: But I certainly would have
17	MR. SOLOMON: Your Honor, I just don't want
18	this hearing to be hijacked by things that I got
19	within the past hour. I don't know what they are.
20	I haven't had an opportunity to go through the
21	materials.
22	My motion has been pending for quite some
23	time. In fact, they were supposed to have been
24	heard last week or the week before but your schedule required a rescheduling. So that's fine

1	and we're here now. I'd like to proceed, if I may,
2	and we can address it as it comes up.
3	THE COURT: Okay.
4	MR. SOLOMON: Thank you.
5	THE COURT: And the Court's available, so
6	everyone knows, is at 4:30 it's going to need to
7	if we need to bifurcate the hearing, we'll get to
8	that point. But the Court is really only available
9	about that time. So that gives us about three
10	hours today.
11	And if the Court needs bifurcation, but for
12	the personnel, I can't have personnel here past a
13	certain hour absent exigent circumstances. So I'm
14	just letting everyone know the time frame. So once
15	we get to that hour, I'll indicate to choose a
16	continuation hearing date.
17	So, Mr. Solomon, you may proceed.
18	MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
19	The petition for dating violence injunction
20	was filed on March 16 of 2020. Right around that
21	time Mr. Geberth learned that Ms. Antonio had
22	robbed him blind. She had not only cheated on him
23	during their relationship by charging to him hotel
24	visits and travel that did not involve him, but in
25	addition, that he discerned that there was well

1	over $100,000 of misappropriated funds.
2	We have suggested that the Court take
3	MS. MCHUGH: Judge, I'm going to object. To
4	ask that I'm just going to object to the nature
5	of this argument, that none of these have been
6	charged. These are just allegations.
7	Ms. Antonio has never been charged with
8	anything.
9	THE COURT: Mr. Solomon, are you just giving
10	sort of an opening statement or are you saying that
11	this is evidence that has been previously admitted?
12	MR. SOLOMON: I'm giving you my argument my
13	opening statement to this proceeding. And I'm
14	going to then give you what the change in
15	circumstances are and the legitimate business
16	purpose for which we seek the modification.
17	THE COURT: I understand your objection. I'm
18	just going to allow leeway for him to present his
19	opening position as to what he believes the
20	evidence will show. So I understand your
21	objection. He's not saying that that's been
22	admitted yet. This is just his opening statement.
23	MS. MCHUGH: I find it I find it very
24	damaging to my client who is sitting here to be
25	called names.

1	THE COURT: Ms. McHugh, I understand, but I'm
2	going to allow him to make his position clear and
3	then he's going to personally put on witnesses and
4	evidence, okay.
5	MS. MCHUGH: Yes, I understand, Your Honor.
6	THE COURT: So, Mr. Solomon, please continue.
7	MR. SOLOMON: Between March 16 when the
8	petition for dating violence, which is very
9	specific under a specific statute, was filed,
10	Mr. Geberth learned of the and embezzlement and the
11	theft and the fraud and the forged checks that have
12	been taking place over an extended period of time.
13	And on April 2nd, 2020, he filed an action in
14	the state court. The Circuit Court action was
15	filed pursuant to the theft and embezzlement
16	allegations and of course is absolutely privileged
17	under the Florida case law.
18	The hearing on the domestic or the dating
19	violence injunction took place on April 22nd, and
20	at that time there were only a couple of matters
21	that were addressed by the Court at that time.
22	But the Court did enter in a final injunction
23	lasting one year for dating violence and it limited contact but it notably did not impose any other sanctions or restrictions on Mr. Geberth during that period of time. It notably did not restrict his ability to retain his wet guns and other weapons. He's a gun enthusiast as you'll hear in just a few minutes. And he maintains all of those guns.

24

2.4

At the -- we entered -- we finally -- my firm came into the case in July of 2020, and immediately Ms. Antonio moved for sanctions against Mr. Geberth's firm on the basis that he didn't have the right to file the state court action. That went nowhere. No effort was made to schedule that motion for sanctions for hearing.

We pursued discovery requests and throughout all of those objections, those discovery requests, Ms, Antonio objected to each and everyone of those objections claiming that DGP, which is Mr. Geberth's company, was seeking its own financial records, that there was no nexus between her financial information and the records that were sought, and that the documents were private and confidential. She never attempted to set that for hearing.

We asked for -- we finally issued subpoenas in the state court case and she objected to those subpoenas but again made no effort to schedule any hearing on those objections.

We dealt with the three lawyers that she had in succession at that time in the state court case and all of those lawyers eventually withdrew and they neither set the matters for hearing nor produced any of the documents that we sought.

We finally were ready to go to a hearing in the state court case on October 13th after

Mr. Geberth filed an additional $23,000 at that point of embezzled funds that he -- that had been coded improperly, that had been sent where goods and services had been purchased by Ms. Antonio using forged checks, credit cards that she had not disclosed, payments that she had not been authorized to make through the company and the like.

But seven minutes before the hearing on the discovery objections that had been filed over the preceding three months, they filed a suggestion of bankruptcy indicating that Ms. Antonio had filed for relief under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. That was on October 13th.

And on October 15th, we filed an adversary proceeding in the Middle District Bankruptcy Court because lo and behold in the preceding two weeks we found yet another $13,000 that Ms. Antonio had embezzled and defrauded during that period of time.

The adversary proceeding -- the petition for the adversary proceeding to avoid the discharge is the subject of a notice of judicial -- a request for judicial notice that we filed under 90.202 and 203. And all of those materials are before you and have been submitted in a timely manner both from the state court and from the adversary proceeding.

In the adversary proceeding, they filed multiple times affirmative defenses. Those affirmative defenses were stricken twice and a couple of affirmative defenses still survived only to be addressed on summary judgement, but they failed to produce any of the documents, and even after we had reached a stipulation on the record in the bankruptcy case, which you'll see as part of the judicial notice, they --

MS. MCHUGH: Your Honor, can I object?

I understand you want to give the Respondent leeway. I don't understand how any of this -- these other proceedings should enter into this proceeding. The only issue before Your Honor is changed circumstances.

THE COURT: Well, I haven't let anything in.

1 I'm only letting him give an opening statement 2 about what he believes.

So once we get to him trying to admit documents or utilize documents, I'll allow you to make any objections you believe on the relevance grounds.

MS. MCHUGH: Okay.

THE COURT: But he's giving his overview of what he believes the evidence will show. So I'm going to give him some latitude to do that, because it might become obvious or it might not. So that's why I'm allowing him to do that.

MS. MCHUGH: Thank you.

THE COURT: So, Mr. Solomon, you may continue.

MS. MCHUGH: Thank you, Judge Gnage.

MR. SOLOMON: Yes. So even after we reached a stipulation on the record in the bankruptcy court that we would enter into a confidentiality agreement so that Ms. Antonio's privileges or protections or privacies or what ever she was concerned about would be protected, they failed to respond to that for a couple of months.

And even after we filed or we reached a stipulation as to what those terms would be on the record, Ms. Antonio contacted directly the various targets of our subpoenas and objected on top of the objections that had been filed in the bankruptcy court proceeding and had been overruled by virtue or stipulation.

She has now had several lawyers, even in the bankruptcy case. There were three lawyers that represented her, different lawyers, and they have all withdrawn from the bankruptcy case.

I don't know how familiar the Court is with it, but there are two cases. One is the case itself, the case in chief, and the other is the adversary proceedings. Sometimes they can have lawyers that are handling only one aspect and not the other. She did. She had two lawyers and both of them have now -- have now withdrawn.

We discovered after the filing of that by virtue of the discovery that she had, in addition to that, uncovered an additional $12,812 in fraud, that she had issued invoices to clients but -- to customers of DGP, the company owned by Mr. Geberth and for whom she worked, but that she didn't deposit the money into the company bank account.

So, now we -- with that background, the Court would take judicial notice of the court proceedings in the state court and in bankruptcy case.

I would tell you that there are four reasons why the changes in circumstances should justify a termination of the injunction.

One is the purpose intended to be served by the initial injunction has been served. There has been no contact that is not otherwise privileged under the Florida's absolute litigation privilege. The passage of time itself has shown that there is no reasonable cause, and that's an objective standard under the statute. No reasonable cause to believe that Ms. Antonio is in any imminent danger of being a victim of dating violence. Their relationship ended in November of 2019, which is well over a year ago.

Second, that Mr. Geberth has since become a born-again Christian. The matters that were the subject of what had happened before -- he has found Jesus and has converted -- has dedicated his life to Christian ways and he is no longer involved in anything that predated this injunction.

Third, as I've indicated, we have this pending case, this adversary proceeding. Much of it relates to very sketchy methods of embezzlement that Ms. Ms. Antonio engaged in with respect to the business, and we need Mr. Geberth's direct involvement and participation to know who's who and who's what and the like with respect to the case.

But we need he needs to have access to the people and records to prepare and present his case in the bankruptcy adversary proceeding to avoid the discharge.

And, fourth, he is a gun enthusiast. I don't know very much about guns, I must admit, but this is a function of unintended consequences. As you noted earlier in the prior hearing, Judge Ramsberger did not impose any restrictions on Mr. Geberth's ability to own and retain his guns. But the mere pendency of the injunction invalidates his concealed weapons permit and also it interferes with his ability to purchase additional weapons or firearms on the commercial basis — a commercially reasonable basis. For example, he was denied recently the opportunity to purchase a shotgun.

I'll tell you that this case is -- that this case really is the best defense is a good offense as what we would ascribe to Ms. Antonio. She has filed multiple injunction petitions, and not once has she claimed that she was really in any danger of anything.

There were some hostile e-mails that were sent and that is indeed regrettable. There was one voice mail that took place on December 24, 2019.

But nothing even in close proximity to the actual injunction hearing on April 22nd gives rise to any objective or reasonable -- reasonably prudent person standard for determining that there is a reasonable basis to that she is in an imminent -- imminent danger of anything in this case.

And the reason that I say that is because we in the exhibits to the adversary petition that we filed in the bankruptcy case you'll see -- and I can put it up if it's necessary to go through each one of those, but they are already validated by the filing of the request for judicial notice under 90.202.

But there were forged checks on Synovus, on the business account of DGP, where she paid her personal bills. She wrote checks to herself and she photoshopped the signatures on those checks.

She took incessant withdrawals from the ATM for the business, the Synovus business account for DGP, even to the point of over -- well over $138,000, but she claims that she was not an employee, even though she had represented that she was supposed to be paid $600 a week for the

1	services that she was providing to the company.
2	She used an unreported Capital One credit card
3	for which she actually asked us for the discovery
4	of the card that she was using and by which she
5	stole or misappropriated funds.
6	She had memberships for example, a
7	membership at Innisbrook that she paid for and
8	labeled it as advertising. There has never been
9	any advertising for DGP or for Mr. Geberth or for
10	his business there. And she's made purchases,
11	hundreds of thousands of dollars through Amazon
12	from September
13	MS. MCHUGH: Judge, I'm just voicing my
14	objection for the record.
15	MR. SOLOMON: September 2002
16	MS. MCHUGH: This is improper impeachment and
17	no proof for any of this. This is the wrong forum
18	for any of this.
19	THE COURT: I do have a question.
20	MS. MCHUGH: It's irrelevant.
21	THE COURT: Well, Mr. Solomon, you referenced
22	a few times judicial notice. The Court, as far as
23	I can recall, hasn't taken judicial notice of any
24	bankruptcy case or any other cases. So, I assume
25	that's something that you're referencing that

1	you're going to make that request.
2	MR. SOLOMON: We've made that request and
3	under the request that we've made under the rules,
4	you're obligated it's mandatory Judicial Notice
5	pursuant to the filing we made on February 17.
6	THE COURT: Let me bring up that filing
7	because I want to see that. February 17.
8	MR. SOLOMON: It's under 90.2 may I speak,
9	Your Honor?
10	THE COURT: You may.
11	MR. SOLOMON: 90.202, Sub 6. Records of any
12	court of this state or of any court of record of
13	the United States or of any state territory or
14	jurisdiction of the United States and under 90.203,
15	you are obligated to take judicial notice of any
16	matter such as that if we give notice, timely
17	written notice and file it with the Court, which we
18	did.
19	THE COURT: Okay. We'll come back to that.
20	All right. You may continue, Mr. Solomon.
21	MR. SOLOMON: Well, my point is my point,
22	Your Honor, of all of this is that we have a
23	legitimate business purpose for being involved in
24	the pending litigation, and all of the efforts that
25	we have been undertaking, and for which we

1	definitely need Mr. Geberth's involvement, are
2	authorized pursuant to the absolute immunity under
3	the litigation privilege, the cases decided by the
4	Florida Supreme Court, Fridodich,
5	F-r-i-d-o-d-i-c-h, it's cited at 598 So.2d 65.
6	It's a Florida Supreme Court case indicating that
7	the matters that we are saying and doing in the
8	context of the litigation is absolutely privileged,
9	and that's what Mr. Geberth is doing.
10	As far as the issues that I anticipate will

As far as the issues that I anticipate will come up, the issue of whether or not Mr. Geberth is contacting any other people -- in fact, Mr. Geberth is going to tell you that he has been contacted by a variety of people who has connections to

Ms. Antonio, and he has explored not knowing whether they were stalking on behalf of Ms. Antonio or not.

And he has retained our law firm and private investigations and made complaints to law enforcement. All of which he's entitled to do.

And under those bases, there is no continuing need or justification for any injunction against dating violence. There has been no contact or communications between the parties since December of 2019 but for a couple of e-mails in March of

1	2020, which all predate the April 22nd injunction.
2	So the circumstances have changed because they
3	have been superseded by events. And Mr. Geberth
4	took to heart Judge Ramsberger's admonition that
5	said, "You can find your way to court," which is
6	what he's done. Thank you.
7	THE COURT: All right, Mr. Solomon, you may
8	proceed.
9	MR. SOLOMON: I'd like to call Mr. Geberth.
10	THE COURT: All right. One moment.
11	THE RESPONDENT: How you doing, Your Honor?
12	THE COURT: Will you raise your right hand,
13	sir.
14	Do you solemnly swear or affirm to tell the
15	truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?
16	THE RESPONDENT: So help me, God, yes, I do.
17	THE COURT: All right. Mr. Solomon, you may
18	inquire.
19	MR. SOLOMON: Thank you, Your Honor.
20	Thereupon,
21	DANIEL ALAN HILTON GEBERTH,
22	the Respondent herein, having been duly sworn to tell
23	the truth, was examined and testified as follows:
