Middle District of Florida

Notice of Bankruptcy Case Filing

A bankruptcy case concerning the debtor(s) listed below was filed under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, entered on 10/13/2020 at 10:33 AM and filed on 10/13/2020.

Faith Elyzabeth Antonio

[REDACTED] FL [REDACTED]

SSN / ITIN: x [REDACTED]

The bankruptcy trustee is:

Christine L Herendeen
Post Office Box 152348
Tampa, FL 33684
813-438-3833

The case was assigned case number 8:20-bk-07637-CPM to Judge Catherine Peek McEwen.

In most instances, the filing of the bankruptcy case automatically stays certain collection and other actions against the debtor and the debtor's property. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay. If you attempt to collect a debt or take other action in violation of the Bankruptcy Code, you may be penalized. Consult a lawyer to determine your rights in this case.

If you would like to view the bankruptcy petition and other documents filed by the debtor, they are available at our Internet home page <https://ecf.flmb.uscourts.gov> or at the Clerk's Office, Sam M. Gibbons United States Courthouse, 801 North Florida Avenue, Suite 555, Tampa, FL 33602.

You may be a creditor of the debtor. If so, you will receive an additional notice from the court setting forth important deadlines.

Sheryl L. Loesch
Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court

Gino and Mcguire law firm,

Please make sure you are including me in your responses to Faith and please make sure this statement of charges is forwarded to me as well.

With that being said, I do not know if Faith will be able to answer you back today or even tomorrow. After the horrible day she had, Faith wanted to take her life last night and I had to have her taken to a hospital. Please again make sure you and your office are communicating with me. I see from the email at 5:06 pm yesterday that she confirmed my involvement.

We still don't have an explanation as to why there is no 100,000.00 bond that Mr. Mcguire seemed to think your firm could impose on Daniel Geberth. When I asked you at the meeting you said we can't and then moved the conversation along. Which was going very fast. That is not an explanation. What is the reason for not being able to impose the bond?

Since I was not CC'd on your response I have no idea where you and Faith left off. You were paid in full for the bankruptcy before you would even start it. Are you still handling the bankruptcy?

Thank you for your time,

Tabitha Gregor

On a side note, I understand that you don't have a domestic violence background. This is domestic violence at its best and you are not seeing that. Your response to Faith in the meeting "well you dated him Faith" was very appalling to me. Gino that does not ever make it right for someone to do this especially at this level of fabrication.

Also please forward a statement of charges. I am assuming you are going to roll everything up into one, from each element. Criminal. Bankruptcy Adversary.

Since we were only speaking on the terms of adversary. But just confirming for our records

Yes as she is ccd and agrees with everything expressed. We literally did not go over everything as you claimed.

Thanks.

Faith,

Highly concerning your below email since we literally discussed with your sister present in my office last week your below issues. Its best I withdraw at this point as you asked for at the end of your email. I will put together a motion to withdraw and get it filed by tomorrow or a stipulation for withdraw. Good luck with everything, thank you.

Subject: Re: Questions

That is incorrect. The whole complaint is deficient. I was never employed by this person. You have taken this case and gone sideways.

You have basically ignored everything that I have said and presented to you. There has been absolutely no communication. Nothing has been presented to me before even filing anything. No consent. No consent filing that answer.

You are making decisions for me that I did not agree to.

I have asked you to present some of that information to Detective Aiken so that he could possibly close the case against me, so that I can file complaints against him for filing false police reports and have them look at the extortion again. Nothing.

I couldn't hear during the 341 meeting. I asked last week during our own meeting but instead got the time for Monday's meeting. You checked out during that meeting while the Plaintiff's lawyer had a go at me like it was a deposition. You were too busy during the meeting on Monday, there were plenty of rebuttals that you could have said. Like when the Judge said that she would be curious and hope that the Defendant had declared wages. I never received any of this money! The Plaintiff never filed this himself!!!

You have told me that I have to stop playing victim. I am a victim. It has nothing to do with who I chose to date for the past five years.

The past year I have been threatened, harassed, detectives coming at my door multiple times, name smeared, etc. etc. I am a victim of domestic violence.

On top of it, during the meeting last week, before I could even finish a sentence you said that you weren't going to lie for me. Why would anyone say that to me?

Have you heard the rumors of the smear campaign that has gone against me the past year? I never asked anyone to lie. I am not lying. If you have heard rumors, then maybe there is a conflict. I need someone willing to fight this for me and really put the effort in.

But I also feel that I am not being adequately represented. You filed a blanket statement for an answer. I'm not a lawyer and I know that's not what you are supposed to do. And then Sandy Solomon said he thought you would have refiled it before the meeting on Monday. You didn't even bother. That man toes the line of ethics in his practice. He has quite the reputation of playing dirty.

I will file my own answer. Better than a blanket document rushed through without case law or context.

It comes down to, as always, financial. Because this case may cost $100k, as you have said, and you are well aware that after leaving my ex, who supported me financially, I haven't a dime. Basically when it comes to anything, if you don't have money, you are screwed in life, no matter the circumstances. I get it. Hopefully life will give me a homerun with a social campaign for awareness. I don't have anything to lose. With that, I would have expected any lawyer on my case to get a boost from the exposure in representing me. It is what it is. Just as my ex threatened, he knows I can't afford an attorney and he is gonna fuck me over. I am not going to pay a lawyer to hand me on a platter.

So what I will get is the bare minimum from you to get this case through the courts and then it doesn't matter, because I am the one who has to deal with the aftermath.

So, in an alternate universe, if I came to the table with 50k, how would this case be worked on differently?

With that said, this is the third time I am basically asking you to hold on any work on my case.

Therefore I am asking for your withdrawal regarding the adversary complaint.

Faith Antonio

I am working on requests this week to other side. I still have to amend my affirmative defenses the judge gave me 14 days. There are no motions to dismiss on face of pleadings. There May be partial motions for summary judgment down the road. Creditors meeting was announced at last meeting with us all on phone. I will get you the date again and time. I believe it's next week or the following. I did not find anything that a bond can be placed. I explained that to you at our last meeting.

Attached is the Motion to withdraw, Faith please sign and date and get back to me so I can file with the court at your convenience. Secondly, I am attaching invoices for civil lawsuit as well as the adversary complaint. You can see I did not bill for many of our communications or even our in office appointment the last time. Like I said, I attempted to keep your bill down as much as possible. I applied $1,000 that you paid initially towards the criminal issue and I believe that is put to bed and you will not owe any more on that. Lastly, the $2,000 plus 375 costs for the bankruptcy that I am still on is a flat fee and that was paid in full. Thanks.

The next alternative was/is the sale of the car to Carvana, and if she is willing to waive her exemption in the Kia, I think that we will have a settlement. I'd like to see the Carvana offer (it is important that she complete the information as accurately as possible or when they get there, the offer could change) and the reaffirmation, then I can see the net proceeds the BK estate will receive. Can she complete the Carvana on-line process this week?

Sorry I thought I replied. Tabitha Ann is her sister.

My understanding of the buy-back was that in lieu of her $1000 car exemption you would liquidate the car and keep the whole proceeds in settlement of everything. I can get you the reaff agreement...I haven't seen it but it would not reflect the actual value with any damage, imperfections etc.

I didn't know about the bike but your offer said it would settle everything including "transferred property " I haven't digged into this too much but my understanding is that some of the property attributed to the debtor is not hers.

The real asset here is the labor law case. She received 1099s for hundreds of thousands of dollars and yet received no wages. These 1099s were submitted to the IRS indicating wages paid to her, which were never paid.

Gino,

I saw the appearance by Samantha Dammer but it seems that her appearance is for the purpose of representing her in the ADV proceeding. If that is not the case and I should communicate settlement offers to her office, please let me know. Before I finalize a settlement offer, I am going to request documentation of the source of the $6500 that was paid to Samantha Dammer as a retainer.

Gino,

In an attempt to give her a fair initial settlement offer, it is based primarily on the equity in the Kia ($4288 after deducting the lien on D, $1k claimed exemption, plus unused exemptions of $2077 that I assume were not used in error so I gave her the benefit of those exemptions in formulating this offer), then $1000 on everything else, including the Mustang, unscheduled personal property and transferred personal property.

Thank you,

She has 8K in exemptions with the wildcard exemption. Very little personal property other than the vehicles and transfers outside the time frame or things were owned by her family. How do you come up with $5,288.00?

Subject: Case 20-07637 FAITH ELYZABETH ANTONIO

Gino,

I will make a settlement offer that I think will be the best offer. The 2015 Kia Forte has scheduled non-exempt equity of $2311 and the Mustang has scheduled non-exempt equity of $1000 for a total of $3,311.00. I ran a KBB of the Kia and using private party value, which is the accepted value in Tampa, it is $10,854.00. Using the scheduled lien amount of $3489.00, it would have equity of $7365.00, which would need to be confirmed by providing a copy of the reaffirmation agreement. I will agree to accept $5,288.00 to be paid via a lump sum payment by the end of January in settlement of all issues related to the equity in the Kia, equity in the Mustang, equity in any unscheduled personal property that she testified about during the 341 mtgs, and any transfers that she testified about during the 341 meetings. I would not pursue her, or any member of her family or any family friends in connection with transfers of personal property that she testified about during the 341 meetings. Again, I will need a copy of the reaffirmation agreement in support of SCH D and to the extent the amount due on the day of filing is less than the amount on SCH D, this offer would go up by the same amount.

If she does not wish to accept this offer, then she can agree to sell the Kia to Carvana, or I will move for turnover of the Kia to sell it through Carvana if she will not cooperate. I would then need her to complete the Carvana information because we fill it out without adding ANY options, which means the vehicle may well have a higher value than the one attached but it should not be lower. Since there is non-exempt equity in the Kia, it is property of the estate and she would be entitled to payment of her exemptions from the sale proceeds with the remainder coming to the estate. A copy of the Carvana quote is attached and it essentially supports the KBB private party value. I would also review the case again for a potential appraisal with respect to the Mustang and other personal property, and further review the issue of the transfers.

I would request a response to this offer by the end of this week because I will be out of the country beginning 12/26 until 1/6. I'd like to know if we are going to be able to settle, and again, I think this is a very fair and reasonable offer under the circumstances, and she filed knowing that there was non-exempt equity to resolve.

Every time I speak my concerns about these subpoena requests of quashing, they go unanswered. This is causing trauma to me. The fact that I have an order of protection against this man and valid proof that he is lying and his continued stalking. The system has failed me.

I know how this man works. As soon as he gets this information of my history. He will ask for this case to be dismissed. He has said this intention.

No one ever cares to hear me.

As I've advised, it is very difficult to have a bankruptcy case dismissed. He has a very hard burden of proof. I do understand your concerns about the discovery and will be objecting to any improper requests for documents as we discussed. But when you are in litigation, discovery is a normal part of the process. I'm working on similar requests for documents that we will be seeking from him.

Yes, as I keep saying that he only wants these documents so that he can continue his own "investigation".

Are you telling me that he will not be able to go in and request for this case to be dismissed and that he has to go before a judge first?

Please advise which subpoenas are being objected to.

That's correct, this would go before the judge at some point.

I'm objecting to anything to do with your children and for years 2014 and 2020. Also attached is what I'll be sending...please let me know if there are any additional documents that we should get from him.

What about the Carvana paperwork? The trustee is wanting to move forward with the sale.
